WHITE HOSE GRAB 2 FROM BROWNS

Callahan's Winning Sox in Another Spree Take Two in Ten Innings.

CUBS AND CARDS DIVIDE

Two Featureless Games in Matinee Bill at St. Louis—Chiefs Pound Brown and Win.

Chicago, Ill., June 29.—Callahan's rampant White Sox are off on another winning spree. Having tumbled the chesty Browns, 2 to 1 in the first half of yesterday's bargain bill at Comiskey park, the locals came from behind in the afterpiece, averted a budding defeat and dealt the Riceless hostilities a second whaling, 3 to 2, before 17,000 fans. Each combat went 10 innings, a wild pitch by "Big Bill" James sloughing off the opener, while heavy gunning decided the windup.

Neither side called out reserves in the first clash, but the second was marked by the frequent changes in the fight front. Score:

EX-ISLANDERS TO WIN THE PENNANT

Davenport Compelled to Depend Upon Hated Rivals of Old This Season.

The signing of Otto Vogel, another former Islander, suggests that Davenport is consumed by the fear that it may not, after all, win the pennant in the Three-Eye league and is taking every precaution to guard against another sore disappointment. So often has the town seen its hopes shattered in this manner that perhaps doubt, even this season, is justified. Time was when Dan O'Leary, Otto Vogel and Frank Lakoff represented in the eyes of the baseball patrons of Davenport the apothosis of all that was monstrous and reprehensible in the national game. The appearance of either in the streets or on the baseball diamond in that city was enough to start a riot. But things are different now. So badly does Davenport want a pennant it is willing to accept it even from the hands of former Rock Island players, to whose prowess a tardy tribute is now paid.

Four Straight for Chiefs.

St. Louis, June 29.—Chicago's Federal made it four in a row over Brown's Federals yesterday by beating old Mordecai himself in a game that was one-sided after the first inning. The score was 7 to 3 and, while the Tinker bunch won, it was more like pathetic to see the once great hunk bunched and thumped by men who would have been lucky had they uncorked as much as a foul off the three-fingered star back in the days of his prime. ## CUBS BREAKS EVEN IN TWO GAMES AT RESERVOIR PARK

The Rock Island Cubs broke even in a double header at Reservoir park yesterday afternoon, losing the first to the Cardinals by a score of 6 to 4 and capturing the second in an easy manner from the Independents by a score of 10 to 1. The Cardinals were able to touch Manglesdorf for but four safe hits, while he whiffed 14 men, but luck was in their favor, and they managed to squeeze six runs across the platter. Danielson pitched for the Cubs in the second confab, holding the Independents to one safe hit, while the losing twirlers were pounded hard. All the news all the time—The Argus.

TYRUS RAYMOND COBB, THE "T. R." OF THE SPORT PAGE, DOES NOT REQUIRE A BATTING AVERAGE TO BE IN THE PUBLIC EYE

The news of Ty Cobb's latest caprice has moved many to remark that Tyrus must be a more than usually modest sort of star. It would seem that the Georgia nectarine underestimates his prominence; that his disappointment at having failed to win sufficient fame on the diamond has prompted him to pick on butchers and other inoffensive persons in his determination to get his name in the paper. At least a glance at his record of fistfuls and heated altercations would lead one to believe that is the way he feels about it.

More than once since he began starting in American league circles has Ty lost his temper in a dispute and poked some one on the nose. Though there are a few knockouts in it, Ty is able to show a list of battles that might rival his batting average. In quite a few of his fights the police stepped in, which is a good sign, as it shows that there was some real lively milling. Only once, though, was the decision against him and that was when he made an effort to carry out his threat and pound the far out of Charlie Schmidt at Montgomery. Schmidt formerly caught for the Tigers. On this occasion Charlie put a crimp in Ty's batting average by severely bruising Cobb's eyes. Ty couldn't make the ball out distinctly for several days. No one would find fault with Cobb if he could confine his attacks to hotel clerks, butchers and the like. Hotel clerks are commonly thought to be deserving of an occasional wallop on the beaver owing to their manner. Butchers, too, are perfectly good adversaries for Ty because anyone who pretends to be a real scrappy person must have a fight at some time or another with a butcher. The most unfortunate feature of Ty's belligerency is that it makes him a mark for the fans. For quite a while after each of his encounters he has taken part in the fans have shown a determination not to let him forget it. Some of the wittier ones about clever taunts at him, such as, "Why don't you soak him one for me?" This, of course, has never mellowed Ty's disposition. Ty would much rather drop the matter and not discuss it right out that way in front of everybody. He also declared at the time of this latest fracas that if they put a piece in the paper about it he'd jump to the Feds. Not that we want to rasp him further, but—here's calling your bluff, Ty.

WIN CHICKEN BUT NOT THE CONTEST

1600 Block Players Hospitably Treated at Aleo but Lose by a Single Run.

After being hospitably entertained and treated to a fine chicken dinner the 1600 Block baseball team from this city was taken to a trimmings, 8 to 7, by the Aleo team in that city yesterday afternoon. It was a close and well contested battle in which Aleo's early lead was whittled down and at one time overcome but only for an inning. Then the Mercer county boys secured the advantage and maintained it till the end, neither side scoring during the last two innings. A feature of the contest was the home run drive of Reeves, the 1600 Block pitcher, one of the longest hits ever seen on the grounds. Score:

Story of the Johnson-Moran Battle Blow by Blow

Round 1—Moran found an opening and landed first to the stomach and head. Johnson succeeded in landing on Moran's jaw. They mixed it hard, Johnson pushing a right into the Pittsburgher's stomach.

Round 2—Moran forced the fighting, but Johnson managed to get some hard uppercuts to Moran's jaw. Moran in return landed hard on Johnson's head. Johnson sent a light left hook to Moran's cheek.

Round 3—Johnson landed Moran several terrific uppercuts to the jaw, while the Pittsburgher responded with several jolts to the negro's stomach. The negro landed a hard jolt on Moran's eye and followed with several hard blows to the body. Johnson crowded Moran, who stumbled against the ropes as time was called.

Round 4—Johnson drew first blood with a right to Moran's nose. The negro smiled confidently as he met Moran's attack. Both led at the same time, each landing on the other's head without harm. Johnson landed on Moran's face as the gong sounded.

Round 5—Johnson appeared fresher and confident as the round began. Moran landed hard on Johnson's jaw and the crowd cheered. Johnson retaliated with several blows to the body. Moran blocked several hard uppercuts and landed lightly on the negro's solar plexus, which amused the crowd.

Round 7—Moran landed several hard ones to the negro's head, while Johnson got in a hard one to the stomach. Moran landed a stiff left to Johnson's chin. Johnson then rushed Moran to the ropes without damage. Johnson opened wider the cut on Moran's nose.

Round 8—Johnson followed his old style in fighting on the defensive. He succeeded in putting three uppercuts to the Pittsburgher's jaw. In a clinch Moran pounded Johnson's stomach, landing five or six blows, and blocked more uppercuts from the negro. Johnson landed a hard right to the jaw. Both fighters did fine work.

Round 9—Moran sent a left hook to the body, while Johnson landed one on the head and several hard ones to the jaw. Johnson rushed the fighting somewhat, Moran receiving a left on the jaw.

Round 10—They mixed it immediately at the opening of the round. Johnson was successful in the fighting. The referee told the men to break away, and
